

NATIONAL PORTFOLIO DAY ASSOCIATION: EVENT CODE OF CONDUCT

National Portfolio Day Association is committed to creating a safe and enjoyable event for all participants. Participants include: students, representatives from art schools, and friends and family members of students. All participants and their guests are expected to adhere to the Event Code of Conduct. All participants must register for this event.

Any person who chooses not to adhere to the Event Code of Conduct may be subject to: ejection from the event; revocation of parking privileges; removal of their portfolio from the event; prohibition from attending future events; citation for trespass or possible arrest.

Event management reserves the right to inspect and search all persons, packages, and bags entering their premises. Event management reserves the right to refuse entry to any person who harasses participants or members of National Portfolio Day Association through any form of communication, including but not limited to: social media; message boards; signs; email; text; or speech.

Any of the following shall be deemed a violation of the Event Code of Conduct:

- Physical violence of any kind.
- Behavior that is unruly, threatening, illegal, disruptive, or that may cause injury to any person or property.
- Foul, obscene, abusive, language or gestures.
- Racist or sexist symbols or flags
- Verbal or physical harassment of event officials or participants
- Any behavior that interferes with other participants' peaceful enjoyment or participation in the event
- Challenges to comments or critiques made by art school representatives
- Disrespecting or demeaning participants or their art
- Any conduct deemed dangerous or disturbing to participants
- Entering into any area that is restricted or closed

- Violating any health or safety requirements posted at entry points to the event
- Attending the event without registering
- Possessing any of the following items: weapons of any kind, alcohol, metal cans, laser pointers, audio recording equipment, professional still/video camera equipment, items intended for sale or promotion, glass containers, selfie sticks, coolers, drones, clothing with offensive or profane language, firearms, and any other items that can be used as a means to disturb the peace or is deemed as a threat to the health and safety of attendees.
- Refusing to allow event management to inspect and search your person, packages, or bags.
- Smoking, vaping, consuming alcohol, or consuming illegal drugs.
- Proliferation of political speech, political pamphlets, or pornography
- Amplified music or video
- Any behavior that discriminates against a person's race, religion, nation of origin, sexual orientation, or gender.
- The unauthorized selling or solicitation of any product or service.

Created by the NPDA Policies & Procedures Committee and approved by the NPDA Board for distribution to NPDA Membership on 8/31/23. For complete NPDA policies and procedure documentation, login to the NPDA member section at:

nationalportfolioday.org